Places to Visit

Town of Cusipata, Urubamba River,
South of Cusco

This adventure challenge will take you rafting down the Urubamba River in Cusco, and you will witness the vast nature surrounding it. You will end your experience relaxing in a sauna or ziplining through the mountains.

You will leave very early on a tourist transport toward the town of Cusipata, where our professional river guides will give you the training needed for the best rafting experience.

You will also receive all the necessary equipment to ensure your safety while enjoying rafting. You do not need previous experience to enjoy this adventure. Then we will go to Chuquicahuana, where you will begin the rafting with class II and III rapids. We will paddle downstream for 01:45 hours while enjoying the landscapes surrounded by mountains and nature.

We will finish our adventure in Cusipata, where we will savor a hot local lunch and then we'll choose between enjoying a comforting sauna or completing the adventure by ziplining between mountains downhill.
