Frequently Asked Questions

- ✓ Can I stay at the restaurants or places visited?
 - Certainly, but please remember that the tour will continue, and you might miss the other points.
- ✓ Are there additional costs within the tour?
 - There are no additional costs included, but the tour provides the opportunity to taste food, and you can purchase more, even to take away, which would have an extra cost.
- ✓ Is there a vegetarian or vegan option available?
 - The tour doesn't have this option at all stops, so it's best to inquire about this for a private tour.

Fun Facts

- On October 16, 2007, Peruvian gastronomy was proclaimed Cultural Heritage of the Nation; this declaration states that Peruvian cuisine is a cultural expression that contributes to consolidating the country's identity.
- In 2021, Peru was named the Principal Culinary Destination in the World Travel Awards. Peruvian cuisine has been the meeting point of diverse cultures, thanks to the inclination for mestizaje that has characterized the history of Peru.
- The name of the Miraflores district comes from a tribute to the Miraflores charterhouse, a Christian monastery founded by King Juan II in 1442 in Spain.
