Magic Water Park & Lima Night

Explore the magic of Lima with a visit to the Magical Water Circuit, where fountains come to life in a dazzling show of lights and colors! Then, delve into the historical heart of the city with our short tour of the historic center.

	Category	Lima Tours
	Type of tours	Attractions, culture, history, city.
	Type of service	Group tour
	Duration	4 hrs.
	Max. Altitude	154 m.s.n.m
	Difficulty	Easy
	Language	English & Spanish
	Places to visit	Park of the Reserve, Magic Water Circuit, Water and Light Fountains, Historic Center of Lima.

At the end of the afternoon (5:30 pm), we will head to the Magical Water Circuit, an impressive feat that has gained global recognition by obtaining the Guinness World Record as the largest public water fountain park in the world. This circuit includes a visit to the cybernetic ornamental fountains and a fascinating show of laser lights, music, and images that synchronize perfectly with the movement of water, creating a harmonious visual symphony.

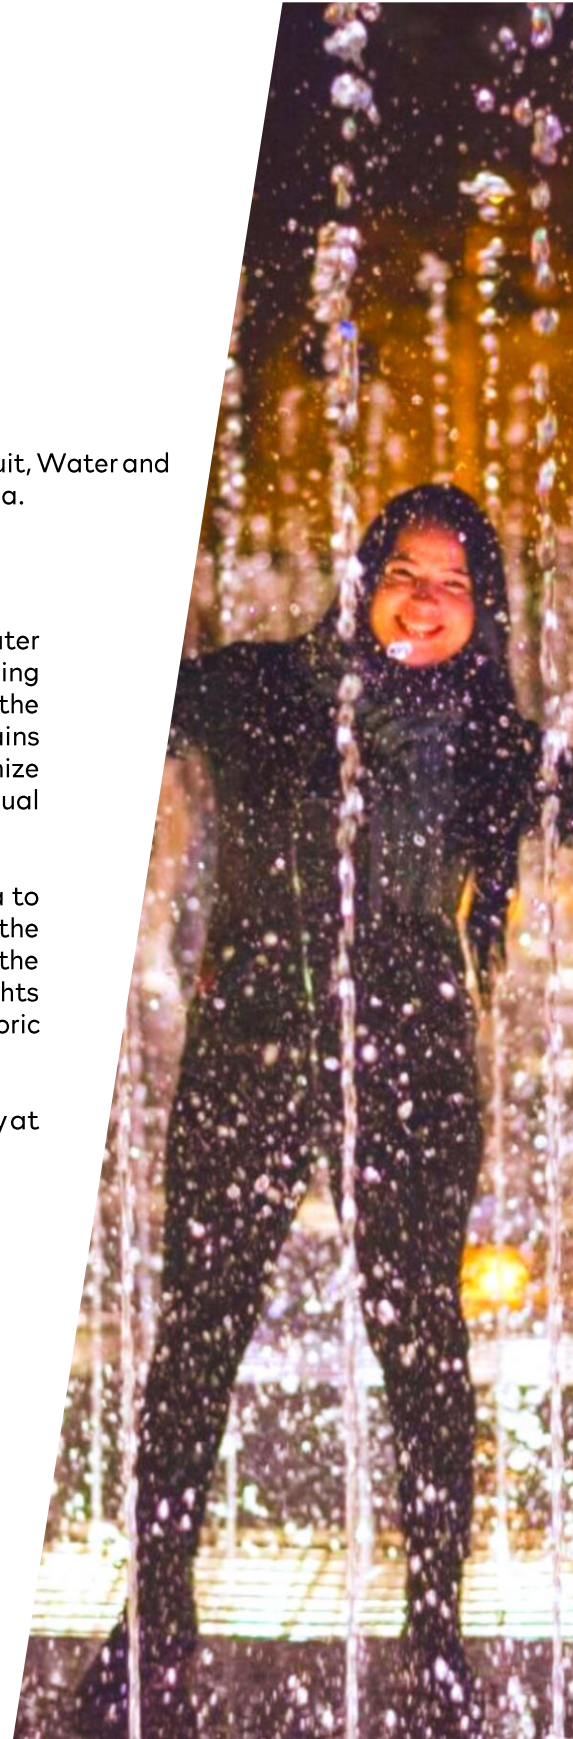

After this initial spectacle, we will head to Alameda Chabuca Granda to immerse ourselves in local fun. If you're feeling adventurous, you'll have the opportunity to try some of the most popular foods and drinks, such as the famous Anticuchos, Picarones, Chicha Morada, and typical sweet delights of Lima. Then, we'll continue the experience with a tour of the Historic Center of the city.

At the end of the tour, you'll have the option to return to your hotel or stay at a restaurant of your choice in the districts of Miraflores or San Isidro.

Fun Facts

- The Magic Water Circuit at the Parque de la Reserva, inaugurated on July 26, 2007, is one of the city of Lima's major municipal projects, an icon, and a symbol of the recovery of public spaces in Lima. It features thirteen cybernetic fountains supported by cutting-edge technology where music, water, sound, and laser lights combine to present unique and incredible shows.
- The Parque de la Reserva was inaugurated in 1929 in homage to the reservists who fought in defense of the city during the War of the Pacific (1881). It holds the status of a historic park, Monumental Urban Environment, and Historical Heritage of the Nation.
